

A COMMUNITY FUNDRAISER

This Joint Is Jumpin'

Spend a Night in the Oldham County Detention Center!

Friday, January 12, 2018

The new Oldham County Detention Center will be opening in January. County government is combining fund raising for community groups with training for the detention center staff.

Participating organizations are offering residents the opportunity to experience a night in the new county lock-up in exchange for supporting their favorite charity.

For a minimum donation of $100.00 to a participating organization 'volunteer inmates' will receive,

- A one fun-night in jail
- An exclusive tour of the new facility
- Dinner on Friday night
- Breakfast on Saturday morning
- Snacks throughout the evening
- A framed souvenir mug shot photo
- A valuable commemorative tee shirt to prove you were there

Capacity is limited to 300 people so sign up now!

This event is open to adults and children, middle school on up. All children must be accompanied by an adult.

BONUS OPPORTUNITY - JAIL THE JUDGE!

For those donors not able to spend the night in jail, a donation may help Jail the Judge. Yes, Judge-Executive David Voegle has agreed to spend a night in solitary confinement if contributions of any amount are received totaling $5,000. Donations to Jail the Judge will be split equally among participating agencies and may be made at GoFundMe.com - Jail the Judge!

Participating Charities and Non-Profits:

American Red Cross	Margaret Horstman	502-222-0305
Arts Association of Oldham County	Brenda Marks	502-222-3822
Creasey Mahan Nature Preserve	Tavia Cathcart Brown	502-228-4362
Crossroads Pregnancy Resource Ctr.	Denise Anthony	502-222-7700
Highpoint Charitable Services	Debbie Rodriguez	502-419-7357

Hope Health Clinic	Kara Sanders	502-387-8969
Humane Society of Oldham County	Bobbi Dewey	502-500-0181
LaGrange Main Street Program	Karen Eldridge	502-269-0126
Ohio Valley Railroad Foundation	Bob Widman	502-930-9430
Oldham County Youth Football	Matt Lippy	502-222-5933
Oldham County Youth Soccer	Chad Duvall	502-381-6281
Second Stride Inc.	Kate Olson	502-472-4378
South Oldham Boosters	Stan Clark	502-592-4834
South Oldham Little League	Julie McGee	502-836-1012
Tri County Community Action	Joan Miles	502-222-1349

For additional information contact:

Kevin Nuss

Oldham County Fiscal Court

Deputy Judge

502-222-9357