

Scrapbooking “Winterfest”

Oldham County Parks and Recreation is holding a scrap-a-thon on Saturday, February 13, 2016 at the John W. Black Community Center in Buckner. Experienced and beginner croppers alike will find something to enjoy at this event. The Community Center features a fireplace and should provide a cozy setting for getting those holiday photos in an album while they’re still fresh!

The John W. Black Community Center is located at 1551 N. Highway 393 in Buckner. From Louisville, take I71 North to exit 17, go left at the end of the ramp on Hwy 146, and then go left at the Marathon station (Hwy 393). The Community Center is up ½ mile on the right.

The registration cost is $10.00 per person plus the materials fees for any of the optional classes you sign-up for. Pizza and soft drinks are included in the price. Our consultants will have products on display and available for purchase. What to bring: All your supplies to scrap or rubber stamp and a dessert to share with your fellow croppers.

For questions, please contact Tim Curtis (502) 225-0655 or by e-mail: tcurtis@oldhamcountyky.gov.
